

I feel that Sinclair's decision to broadcast a highly prejudicial film blantly anti-Kerry just days before the election constitutes a campaign contribution and in no way can be construed as "news".

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. If it is allowed to broadcast this propaganda film, it ought to at least be obligated to devote an equal amount of time to pro-Kerry voices.